8 December 2009

As the Executive Director of the National Guard Association of Florida (NGA-FL), I would like to develop a partnership between our state association and corporate members to generate support for products that enhance the readiness of over 10,000 members of the Army and Air National Guard. I envision greater dialogue between our association and our corporate associates, particularly in regard to key procurement issues. We have developed a corporate "Ring of Honor" program to provide our corporate sponsors an additional avenue to support NGA-FL and its members. Participants in this program can join at the platinum plus, platinum, gold, silver or bronze level and receive special recognition and privileges, it includes the exhibit fee at our annual state conference. We are excited about this program as it allows us to strengthen our relationship with our corporate sponsors.

Membership in the Corporate Ring of Honor provides marketing information and preferred registration at events such as:

- The NGA-FL Annual Conference and Golf Tournament
- Ring of Honor Dinner with the TAG and Senior Leaders
- Invitation to the Annual Legislative Open House in Tallahassee
- NGA-FL publications
- Company advertised on the NGAFL Web Site
- Scholarship Awarded in Corporate Name

It is also my pleasure to invite you to join the membership of the National Guard Officers Association of Florida (NGOA-FL) and the Enlisted National Guard Association of Florida (ENGAF) to the Associations (NGAFL) annual conference, to be held at The Caribe Royale, 8101 World Center Drive, Orlando, FL 32821, 1-800-823-8300. The conference dates are Thursday through Sunday, 3-6 June 2010. We anticipate having over 1000 Florida Guardsmen and family members at this event. Should you choose not to join our Ring of Honor Program but would like to be an exhibitor at the conference, the cost will be $1,000.00 for the weekend, which includes the booth rental and the coffee breaks, (golf and food functions will be extra). If you plan to attend, please return the enclosed registration form with the names of all individuals attending and any requirements that you made need. We have changed our exhibit hours. Friday we will have the ribbon cutting and our family night in and around the exhibit hall from 4:00-10:00 p.m. and Saturday the exhibits will be open 7:00 a.m. through 3:00 p.m.

The Annual Conference will officially open to all attendees with a Golf Tournament on Friday, followed Friday afternoon by a general meeting. We will also have a family event on Friday evening. Throughout Saturday we will conduct our business and breakout sessions, with the annual formal dinner on Saturday evening. Our conference will conclude Sunday morning with a prayer breakfast.

The matrix of benefits by level of membership is attached. Conference information will be available on the NGA-FL web site that is in the process of a new design @ <http://www.floridaguard.org>. Or call me at the NGA-FL Office: (904) 823-0629 or Fax: (904) 829-2068 or Email: mary.e.paul@us.army.mil. We look forward to developing an enduring relationship with your company and encourage you to join our influential Association.

Sincerely,

Mary E. Paul
